COVER PHOTO: JAN GILLESPIE, MD, NCMS PHYSICIAN OF THE YEAR

The Northern Colorado Medical Society selected Jan Gillespie, MD, as the 2023 NCMS Physician of the year. The Physician of the Year award is the society's highest honor.

Dr. Gillespie is board certified in both anesthesiology and pain management. She supports a multidisciplinary team approach in caring for patients with spine pain. She performs steroid injections, radiofrequency ablations to alleviate pain and procedures to diagnose facet joint disease. Spine procedures are performed using fluoroscopy.

She has served the American Society of Anesthesiologists (ASA) for the past 15 years as a member of the Committee of Economics and as a delegate from the state of Colorado. She is past president of the Colorado Society of Anesthesiologists and served on the Northern Colorado Medical Society Board of Directors for 12 years and as NCMS treasurer for five years. She served on the Colorado Medical Society Board for four years in addition to many various CMS committees and continues to serve on the Committee on Value in Health Care.

Dr. Gillespie is president and medical director for the Northern Colorado Individual Practice Association (NCIPA) and Colorado IPA. NCIPA is a physician and allied health provider organization with 400 members in Colorado.

Additionally, she is the founder of Systems of Care Initiative, a community-based 501(c)3 organization that provides advance care planning for people in northern Colorado. Her personal journey with her family and friends has led her vision to ensure everyone has the ability to have their voice heard during a medical crisis.

Dr. Gillespie worked for two years with Colorado Senator Joann Ginal to help write and advocate for Senate Bill 19-073, which created a statewide registry for Advance Care Directives. The bill was passed and signed into law by Gov. Jared Polis in 2019.

She is also the owner and president of CPS Healthcare Solutions, LLC (CPS). CPS provides administrative services to medical practices, medically related businesses and to nonprofit organizations.

Physician of the Year Jan Gillespie, MD.

Besides her interest in medicine and the business of medicine, Dr. Gillespie and her husband, Robert Wagner, own and manage a biotech company, Gene Check, which does genetic testing for animals and basic research in mutation detection. They live in northern Colorado on a cattle and sheep ranch and train and trial border collies.

Is your doctor outstanding? Nominate the next NCMS Physician of the Year! The NCMS Board of Directors seeks nominations for the 2024 Northern Colorado Medical Society Physician of the Year. Due Dec. 1, 2023. For more information, go to nocomedsoc.org and access the nomination form under the About tab.

ABOUT THE NORTHERN COLORADO MEDICAL SOCIETY

NORTHERN COLORADO MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Northern Colorado Medical Society provides a forum for the discussion of social, scientific and legislative concerns affecting the health of local physicians and patients. We advocate on behalf of physician members and work to promote better health in northern Colorado. The Larimer County Medical Society (established in 1903) and the Weld County Medical Society merged in 2014 to form the Northern Colorado Medical Society to better serve our region.

The mission of NCMS is to advocate on behalf of our physician members, to encourage a strong and healthy medical profession, and to improve the health and wellbeing of all people in our community.

NCMS condemns racism, injustice and discrimination in all forms. We stand united for diversity, equity and inclusion. We are committed to mutual respect, listening and understanding for our patients, physician colleagues and community.

Serving our community

Our directory helps patients in our community find local physicians. Our website features local medical news, events and links to other health organizations. Visit www.nocomedsoc.org.

We provide educational opportunities for physician members, working to ensure that social trends and their impact on the health of the community are assimilated into best practices. We participate in community initiatives that address health issues and serve on coalitions promoting better health.

In support of our mission, NCMS will:

- Provide an opportunity for all physician members to meet and discuss concerns.
- Promote high-quality health care to the community.
- Provide services that meet the needs of our members.
- Serve as a forum for health care information.
- Advocate for our members and patients in the public arena.
- Maintain a close working relationship with the Colorado Medical Society and strive to educate our local membership of our common objectives.
- Forge and maintain partnerships with the local health departments, hospitals, health facilities, other community organizations and the media in advocating for or responding to the health of our community.
- Maintain and provide an organization with the high standards necessary to fulfill the above purposes.

MEET THE 2023-2024 NCMS PRESIDENT SEAN PAUZAUSKIE, MD

Dr. Sean Pauzauskie, MD, is a hospital neurologist with UCHealth who completed medical school in Kansas, and residency in California and Texas. He lived in Fort Collins as a child and relocated as soon as he had a choice, to serve a community he cares about and be nearer his family. His interests in medicine range from translational research to public health and policy, having worked in Washington, D.C., prior to medical school on these issues. He also completed a medical history fellowship in Germany, studying post-reunification health policy through the lens of the doctor-patient relationship. Dr. Pauzauskie is excited to work with such a great group of physicians, residents, and students as those he's found in Northern Colorado. He's married to his wife, Jen, a hospital chaplain, and has a Siberian husky, named Tika. In his free time he enjoys fishing, hiking, biking, college basketball, reading and writing fiction, and spending time with family and friends.

A FEW WORDS FROM NCMS LEADERS

Briana Money, DO

Dr. Money is the current treasurer of NCMS and associate program director for the North Colorado Family Medicine Residency Program in Greeley.

How do you make a difference in medicine?

I think I make a difference in medicine in a couple of ways: by helping teach and mentor the next generation of family physicians, and by really taking the time to work with each of my patients to help them live their version of their best life. That looks different for everyone, so being willing to hear their goals and values and tailor my advice and our plan to fit with their personal health goals is very fulfilling.

Ted Norman, MD

Dr. Norman is the immediate past president of NCMS and a retired internal medicine physician. He has been a member of CMS and NCMS/Larimer County Medical Society for 24 years.

Why is it important to you to be a member of the NCMS Board of Directors?

By staying involved in organized medicine, I can have an impact on the practice environment in the state and can foster connections between Colorado's legislative branch and practicing physicians.

With independent practices being quickly absorbed into larger entities, there still needs to be a voice for those on the front lines of medical care. Being on the Board of Directors can help show physicians that they still have some control over their practices.

Thomas Allen, MD

Dr. Allen is a longtime NCMS and CMS board member and a retired internal medicine physician. He has been a member of CMS and NCMS/Larimer County Medical Society for 45 years.

Why did you get involved in the leadership of CMS and NCMS?

The more I saw of the problems the profession faced, the more I wanted to be part of the response that physicians of good conscience needed to bring. Once becoming involved in the societies' efforts, leadership just seemed to come with the territory. I continue to believe that strong leadership is necessary for the good of our profession, but am concerned that at the current time our organizations may need to do more to gain the political and social strength needed to preserve the profession and make it once again attractive to medical students and residents – especially in primary care.

IS YOUR DOCTOR OUTSTANDING? NOMINATE THE NEXT PHYSICIAN OF THE YEAR

Do you know a northern Colorado physician who goes above and beyond? Who provides our community with compassionate and caring medical service in practice, education or research; enhances the quality of his or her community; and/or serves as a credible role model to others?

The NCMS Board of Directors seeks nominations for the 2024 Northern Colorado Medical Society Physician of the Year, the society's highest honor. The nominee must be a member in good standing of the Northern Colorado Medical Society (graduate, active or emeritus). Unsure of membership? Contact us.
